

International Journal on Disability and Human Development

GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS

The International Journal on Disability and Human Development provides an international and interdisciplinary forum for the dissemination of peer-reviewed review articles, original articles, case reports, short communications, letters to the editor and book reviews in the field of disability and human development.

Submissions Manuscripts, books for review and correspondence should be submitted to the editor-in-chief Professor Joav Merrick, MD, Medical Director, Ministry of Social Affairs, Box 1260, IL-91012 Jerusalem, Israel; Tel: 972-2-6708192; Fax: 972-2-6703657; Mobile: 972-50-6223832; E-mail: jmerrick@internet-zahav.net
Manuscripts are received with the understanding that they have not been submitted to other scientific or medical journals or other publications and if accepted, copyright is transferred to Freund Publishing House Ltd. Manuscripts involving human and animal studies should have received formal approval by the author(s) Institutional Review Board, and clinical studies must adhere to the principles of the Declaration of Helsinki.

Manuscripts The manuscript should be in English and submitted by e-mail to the editor as attachment (Rich Text Format). We follow the "Uniform requirements for manuscripts submitted to biomedical journals" (also called the Vancouver style, see <http://www.icmje.org/>) determined by the International Committee of Medical Journal Editors. The manuscript should have the following components in numbered order and each beginning on a new page:

Title page with a concise and informative title, full name of author(s) with academic degree(s) and departmental or institutional affiliations of each author. Text should be under the headings Abstract, Introduction, Methods, Results, Discussion, Acknowledgement, References, Tables and Figures with each category starting on a new page. Abstracts should not exceed 250 words and incorporate background, objective, study group, methods, results and conclusions. At least three key words should appear under the abstract.

References (maximum of 25 for articles, 40 for review articles and 5 for case reports) should be cited consecutively (enclosing the number in parenthesis) in the text and listed in the same numerical order at the end of the paper. The Vancouver Style is required (<http://www.icmje.org/>).

Reprints Twenty-five reprints and a copy of the journal issue will be supplied free of charge to the corresponding author. Additional reprints are available at a special rate from the publisher. Order forms for this purpose will be included when page proofs are sent to authors.
